

WEA MLTP

Registration Link located at washingtonea.org -
Events - WEA Teaching Equity Conference

Saturday, May 18th
8:00am - 3:30 pm

Becoming Culturally Responsive Educators: -What Does it Take?-

$50 Registration
Includes
Breakfast, Lunch

What helps educators of all backgrounds be excellent teachers of students of diverse backgrounds, particularly students of color living in poverty? Based on her research with teachers around the nation, Dr. Nieto will address the values, dispositions, and actions that it takes to become a culturally responsive teacher.

- Morning Sessions - Dr. Sonia Nieto
- Lunch - Kore Ionz Music
- Afternoon Sessions - Cultural Group Panels

To register for the conference, simply click on the words below.

CLICK HERE

6 Clock Hours available for only $5!

Space is not limited and plenty of spots still available! If you have any questions please email Richard Fisher at rfisher@washingtonea.org.

Audience - WEA Members and future teachers

Saturday, May 18th

9:00am – 3:30pm

Highline Community College,
2400 S. 240th St, Bldg. 8
Des Moines, WA

Professor
School of Education
Amherst

Key Note
Speaker: Dr. Sonia Nieto

www.sonianieto.com