

2011 WEA Education Support Professional (ESP) of the Year

We all know our schools would not operate well without Education Support Professional's (ESP) hard work and assistance. Here's your chance to thank an Education Support Professional for outstanding work and to recognize the work of all of our ESP members. You may nominate yourself.

Nominate an Education Support Professional school employee who you believe is:

- ◆ Outstanding contribution to the students or district beyond normal duties of the job;
- ◆ Involved in local WEA/ESP or NEA/ESP association; and
- ◆ Makes the community a better place for students and their families.

ESP of the Year Nominee _____

Eligibility:

- Nominees must be current members of WEA/Education Support Professionals (WEA/ESP), and also be full or part-time employees of a school district, an Educational Service District, or another Washington educational institution the year the award is presented;
- Former recipients of the award are not eligible.

In 300 words or less, tell us why you believe your nominee ought to be the 2011 ESP of the Year. We're interested in learning about the nominee's activities that go beyond actual work assignments. You may include comments about the nominee's involvement in the local association, commitment to the community through service-oriented activities including volunteer work, civic and other group activities. This isn't an essay contest, so don't worry about YOUR writing – just help us get to know your nominee. (Please submit a separate piece of paper.)

Education Support Professional Employee of the Year Letters of Support

As part of your entry, you may attach up to three (3) letters of support. Letters may be from teachers, ESP members, ESP or Education Association presidents or other leaders, superintendents, principals, supervisors, students, parents, civic leaders or friends. (Please limit letters of support to three letters.)

PLEASE ASK YOUR NOMINEE TO COMPLETE A PROFESSIONAL BIOGRAPHY (outlined below).
THIS SECTION MUST BE COMPLETED BEFORE WE CAN CONSIDER YOUR NOMINEE.
THANK YOU.
