

Election Guidelines for the position of NEA STATE DIRECTOR TO THE NEA BOARD

Delegates to the WEA Representative Assembly elect NEA State Directors. NEA State Directors meet at NEA Headquarters in Washington, D.C. They are involved in critical decisions about Association policy related to public education and they help administer decisions made by delegates of the NEA Representative Assembly (the NEA's highest decision-making body).

1. Nominee must be an active NEA member.
2. Nominations for NEA State Director must be made by an active NEA member or group of active NEA members.
3. Nomination must be submitted in the online nominations site, or can be made at the 2018 WEA Representative Assembly up to the closing of nominations on the floor of the Assembly. The term for the NEA State Director position is three years.
4. A nominee who wishes to have coverage in WEA's special election webpage must enter this information (250 word maximum) in the online nominations site and may also upload a photograph.
5. NEA State Directors are elected by a majority of the valid ballots cast by delegates attending the 2018 WEA Representative Assembly.
